My Childhood

This was me. The picture was taken when I was three. My parents told me that I have been a funny boy since I was two.

I was fat and cute in this period and my parents usually played jokes on me. “You were born from the pig’s ass”, they said. But I never get angry because I understand what they are talking about.
This is my grandmother. She is the most important person in my life because she always stands by me whenever I feel sad and helpless.

I like her very much because I believe that no one can change my life except her.
The first thing I made

This is a little wooden house. It is the first thing made by my mother and me when I was nine. We spent a lot of time making it because I was a destroyer.
The first sport I learned

Whenever we have free time, my father and I like to go to the swimming pool, which is near my house. He is my best coach because he is good at swimming.

My father took this picture for the first time for me to enter Ping tong City Swimming Pool when I was thirteen. The style I learned is breast stroke.
My hobbies

I used to do some farming with my grandmother when I was a student in senior high school. She would teach me how to grow the crops.

The crop, millet, on this picture is the most important traditional food of our race of Paiwan, and it was grown by me.
Everyday in my bedroom

My parents are stern about my school scores. They usually came into my bedroom to check my homework and the point I drew on my book every night. If I did not do that, I would keep working hard on that because they would watch me till I finished the homework.
The awards I got since I was six

Elementary school: 36  high school: 45  award: 8  other contests: 16  total: 105
